

ARE WE STILL BOYCOTTING EDWIN MELLEN PRESS?

YES

WHY?

The continued reprehensible behaviour by Edwin Mellen Press and Herbert Richardson: the lawsuits against Dale Askey, threats against The Scholarly Kitchen, and the registration of domain names using Dale Askey's name.

This behaviour is an affront to freedom of expression, academic freedom, and scholarship in general.

There are plenty of options available for constructive dialogue with critics, and customers. Lawsuits, take down notices, and registering domain names of lawsuit opponents, are definitely not the best choices.
